

Scholarship Essay Question:

Many consumers are not aware of the differences between an investor-owned electric utility and a cooperatively-owned electric utility. What are the differences between an investor-owned and a cooperative (electric utilities)? What are the benefits of being a member of a cooperative? Who can belong to a cooperative? How will cooperatives potentially play a role in your future career interest?